

LECCE and OTRANTO (ITALY)

Summer School:	16 – 20 July
Summer Camp:	23 – 27 July
Public Forum:	27 – 29 July

OVERVIEW

Otranto Legality Experience is a unique opportunity to investigate issues related to the relationship between organised crime and finance, through workshops, seminars and discussions held by Italian and international speakers.

Organised by FLARE Network, the event is held in Lecce and Otranto from July 16th and 29th 2012.

The goal is to develop and set a benchmark in Europe for the role of civil society in combating transnational organised crime.

OLE is dedicated to the memory of Renata Fonte, killed by mafia on March 31 1984, and this year to the journalist Toni Fontana. The events cultural editor is Vittorio Agnoletto.

OLE 2012 is composed of three main parts: the Summer School, the Summer Camp and the Public Forum.

 The Summer School, taking place in Lecce on July 16-20, is open to 60 university students, 45 of which Italians and 15 international. Attendance to the Summer School gives the opportunity to acquire university credits.

 The Summer Camp takes place in Lecce on July 23-27 and it is open to about 100 participants. Participation at the Summer Camp is bound to enrollment and the payment of a fee.

 The Public Forum takes place in Otranto and it is a free-entrance 3-day debate with Italian and international guests on July 27-29.
